LOCATION SOUGHT.

Indiana Capitalists Here Today Looking Over Paducah.

Messrs. A. A. Charles and A. V. Conrad, of Kokomo, Ind., arrived this morning from Evansville on the John S. Hopkins to take a look over Paducah.

They constitute a committee that is seeking a location for mammoth steel works, and have been to all the cities of importance from Cincinnati to Paducah. The works consist of blooming, rod, wire, nail and galvanizing, and additional shops. About 600 people will be employed, and the capital of the concern is $1,500,000. The gentlemen are very pleasant, and of course do not say anything about the impressions made upon them by the various places they have visited. There is another committee visiting towns on the lower Mississippi.

The gentlemen here were shown about by Secretary George Dains and Mr. W. F. Paxton, of the Commercial club, which invited them and met other prominent citizens. Tonight they leave at 6:15 for St. Louis.

MEMORIAL!

Many Today Mourn Soldier Dead. Elaborate Processions and Impressive Ceremonies Throughout the Land. Flowers Dropped Over Newly-Dug Graves.

Today is Decoration Day, the most impressive holiday in the American Calendar. The above strikingly realistic photograph is sadly appropriate for this year's observance of our great memorial day. Many a grief-stricken widow or heartbroken sweetheart has today to mourn the loss of some beloved hero who has fallen on a far away Tagal battlefield fighting for the honor of his country and the glory of his flag. All over the country veneration relatives will today drop flowers upon the graves of departed heroes. This year many newly dug graves to be found among the last resting places of warrior patriots of a past generation, give to the holiday a new and added significance.

The Council and Board of Health Committees Met Last Night.

WAS A LOVE FEAST

They Both Did Wrong and Are Sorry For It, and the Committees Are to Investigate and Get an Inspector Ordinance.

CONFERENCE HARMONIOUS LAST NIGHT

Mayor Lang, President Robertson and Messrs. Pat O'Brien, P. H. Stewart, Chas. Graham, Health Officer Graves, of the board of health, and Councilmen Davis, Weille and Rudolph, met last night in the office of President Robertson to discuss the live stock and milk inspector ordinance.

Councilman Weille stated the object of the meeting was to settle the question if possible, and that although the council had been ignored in the past it was willing to forgive and hear suggestions.

Mayor Lang had several extracts of medical statistics of '70 read relative to the inspection of milk, supplementing it with the statement that he at first thought that to insure pure milk it was necessary to subject it to a chemical analysis, but had since learned that an inspection of dairies was sufficient. President Robertson concurred in this position, but objected to the medical extracts the mayor had read on account of their antiquity. He also said that the proper person for meat inspector was a veterinary surgeon, proving this by federal reports.

Dr. Frank Boyd was in favor of the inspector making regular inspections of the cattle, visiting the slaughter pens once a month and making an examination of all cattle, taking temperature testing glands, and making examinations for tuberculosis. Additions to the supply of live stock should be inspected in the same way, and a safeguard in the form of severe penalties for killing beef that had not been inspected, be adopted.

Dr. Stewart moved that the board of health appoint a committee to send for and carefully consider stock and milk inspectors ordinances in force in other places and draft one for Paducah along the same line, and the motion prevailed.

The matter of publishing the minutes or proceedings of the board of health was then discussed, and mutual explanations made. The meeting closely resembled a love feast by this time, and the health board virtually admitted that it had made a play to get even, and wouldn't do it any more. Secretary Graves made an explanation about the diseased cow that was sold on the market and has done so much to make vegetarians of the people of Paducah. He said he got his first information from the late Mr. W. P. Barnhill, and that the proper evidence as to the offense and identity of the butcher can be given, and will if necessary.

The last grand jury took the matter up, but did not take any action, bidding President Robertson go before the next body, which sits in September.

Dr. Stewart was in favor of the publication of the name, but nothing definite was done.

President Robertson appointed the following committee to confer with the council committee and assist in getting up a stock and milk ordinance: Drs. Graves and Stewart, Messrs. Pat O'Brien, Chas. Graham and Dr. Frank Boyd, referee for the state board.

ENTERTAINED HUNDREDS.

THE ARCADE THRONED LAST NIGHT WITH APPRECIATIVE PATRONS.

Manager John Lane has reason to feel proud of the response of the public to the Arcade's invitation to come out and celebrate its second birthday. Last night hundreds of friends and patrons thronged the beautiful building and partook of the hospitality of the manager. There was music to enliven the occasion, and souvenirs were distributed to every one who called.

The Arcade is one of Paducah's largest and most up-to-date establishments and its success has been very gratifying, and bids fair to increase under able management of Mr. Lane, whose methods are modern and sure to bring still greater success. There was never a larger crowd in a local mercantile establishment than the one of last evening.

Mr. Lane is very proud of the second birthday celebration of the Arcade.

BRIG. GEN. RIDDELL IN THE CITY EN ROUTE TO LOUISVILLE.

DELIVERS AN ADDRESS.

MISS KATE HERNDON HONORED BY AN INVITATION TO CLARKSVILLE.

Miss Kate Herndon leaves tomorrow for Clarksville, Tenn., where she will deliver an address before the alumni of the Female High school there.

Miss Herndon is one of the most talented young women of the south, and needless to say will give those who are fortunate enough to hear her a treat. She only recently returned from Berlin, where she completed her studies.

BADLY FRIGHTENED.

Some of the young men implicated in the chicken and whiskey episode of Tuesday night south of town, are reported to have left the city, and others have offered to pay for the chickens, it is understood. As yet no warrants have been issued, and the affair may blow over.

EX-GOV. CAMPBELL, OF MISSOURI, SAYS:

I have heard the Rev. H. W. Sears deliver his famous lecture, "More Taffy and Less Epitaphy." I take great pleasure in recommending him to all lecture-loving people as one of the witliest, most eloquent, pleasing entertainer that it has ever been my pleasure to hear.

He held his audience spell-bound from beginning to end, and I am persuaded that no one can hear this talented lecturer without being inspired to nobler thoughts and loftier ideals.

Hear him on "Grumblers and Their Cure" at Cumberland Presbyterian church Friday evening at 8:30.

DAILY THOUGHT.

We can only be valued as we make ourselves valuable.—Emerson.

A DEMOCRATIC OPINION.

The Louisville Post says: "Mr. Watterson attempts to hold Mr. Cleveland responsible for the Wilson tariff. The fact is that the enemies of Mr. Cleveland in the senate made the Wilson tariff and put upon it all the odium possible."

"Mr. Cleveland made special appeal to Democrats to redeem the pledges the party had given, and in strong terms denounced the juggling by means of which the tariff reform bill had been made acceptable to all the trusts."

"Mr. Cleveland signed the bill because it contained the free wool clause and because a veto would have left the old law untouched."

"The truth is the Democratic party, put in control of every department of government, demonstrated that it was unfit to govern. It had no principle to which all its leaders adhere. It could formulate no policy which would command the support of all factions and all sections. It was seen to be a mere aggregation of place-hunters, some seeking place merely for the perquisites others seeking place that they might defeat the declared purposes of the party."

"In its national platform the Democrats had called for the repeal of the Sherman silver purchase act. Democrats in congress fought the president on that proposition, and the repeal was accomplished only by the aid of Republican votes."

"In the platform of 1892 the party pledged itself to a tariff for revenue only, but in the senate Democrats conspired to destroy the administration, changed the house bill, and made it a bill for the benefit of special interests."

"When the president restored peace to Chicago, every Democratic senator endorsed his action, but when those same senators, White, Daniels and Jones, went to Chicago, they denounced the acts of the president as the overthrow of liberty."

"That is the record of the so-called Democratic party. It has no power today as a national organization. It has betrayed every principle for which once it stood. It is now arrayed against individualism, against personal liberty it stands for an extension of governmental authority in all directions, and demands a form of paternalism more extreme than any the Republican party has ever been ready to endorse."

The good roads train should stop here. It is to give its demonstrations at places not half as important as Paducah, and it is believed that if the proper effort is made it can be brought here. The roads in McCracken county—and Paducah—may be good, but they can be improved, possibly, if those at many of the places at which the train is making stops can be improved. It will be at Louisville the latter part of June, and there is yet time to take steps to induce a halt here. The people would like to see it, if nothing else.

Secretary Root has declined to extend any clemency to the five cadets who were expelled from West Point. Their main plea was that there were other equally as guilty as they, but this did not excuse them—for being the unfortunate ones who were caught. Their punishment will have a salutary effect on the other cadets, and this is the principal reason it was inflicted.

The dentists leave us tonight. They have doubtless enjoyed their stay, and have been as distinguished a body of men as ever met here. There were not as many as were expected, but what was lacking in quantity was made up in quality.

Some of the old soldiers in scouting about over crowded Memphis for something to eat and a place to sleep are doubtless more forcibly reminded of war times than they hoped to be.

It is wondered if the Paducah Gun club will have to answer in the hereafter for all the pigeons that the small boys steal to sell them for their live bird shoots.

Memphis has been captured again, but she is not complaining—Commercial Appeal.

No, but you ought to hear some of the visitors!

The Cuban constitutional convention has virtually adopted the Platt amendment by vote of 15 to 14, which indicates that they have more regard for their welfare than they had been given credit for. The convention had a lively time preceding the vote, however, and one hot-headed senator who said that everybody voting for the amendment was a traitor, was compelled by the convention to retract.

The meeting of the committees to settle the meat and milk inspector question last night affords some satisfaction, and will have accomplished much good when its conclusions are ratified by the council in passage of an ordinance authorizing the appointment of the official. Until then it will be impossible to determine whether the council is in earnest or not.

The action last night was little improvement over the action taken several weeks ago, when the ordinance committee was instructed by vote of the council to bring in an ordinance providing for the desired inspector.

The ordinance was never brought in, and it takes the present committee as long to reach any definite conclusion as it has the ordinance committee, it may be next year before the inspectors are appointed. The best is hoped for, however, and the committees, in their action of last night, demonstrate that they are cognizant of the trend of public opinion and the demands of the majority of the people of Paducah.

One of the little incidents that help to show the reverence of the school children for President McKinley and his invalid wife was the presentation at Omaha of a large bunch of American beauty roses by a crowd of waiting school children for Mrs. McKinley. The car remained until the president had shaken hands with several hundred people who filed past the train.

The question of language to be used in the courts of Manila is to be settled by the commission. It is to be urged that one be adopted that can be more readily understood than some of the language used in the American courts. Spanish is suggested.

Personal encounters are expected to result from the vote on the Platt amendment in the Cuban constitutional convention. Some of the bellicose senators must have come originally from Kentucky.

A drummer who is supposed to have been crazy at Owensboro thought that some one was "throwing something white all over him." He had probably been mixed up in one of the carnival "confetti" fights.

EVERYBODY STILL SINGING THE PRAISES OF THE CARNIVAL.

Mr. Joe Blum has returned from Owensboro and Henderson where he has been attending the Elks carnivals. He reports good shows and large crowds at both places, but says that the carnivals are nothing to compare to Paducah's. Everywhere he went he heard people praising the big fair that the Elks gave here, and it is certain that the next one will be still more successful.

"I am confident," said Mr. Blum this morning, "that more good has been done Paducah than spending $100,000 could have accomplished in any other way. It has been the biggest advertisement that the city could have had."

GEORGE RODE.
WELL KNOWN ITALIAN OBJECTED TO A PEDESTRIAN TOUR.

George Green, the Italian well known for his pedestrian abilities, returned from Louisville yesterday, where he had gone on business and he rode back this time. George has the reputation for long trips and has walked to Chicago and back twice with a scissor grinder on his back. According to his story he enjoyed the trip as much as he would had he ridden on a train. He suffered no inconvenience from the load on his back and said if the occasion demanded he would do the same thing again.

The T. C. transfer steamer De Koven that has been on the ways for repairs leaves for Evansville today.

The river combine will lose part of its holdings in controlling the southern market. The recently opened oil fields in Texas have caused sugar plantations in the neighboring states too make arrangements for the consuming of oil instead of coal, and several of the railroad companies entering New Orleans are putting in apparatus to burn the Texas product. Steamship companies leaving Mobile, Ala., will use oil instead of coal.

The City of Golconda skipped for Golconda at noon today full of business.

The John S. Hopkins from Evansville arrived this morning on time with a very good trip and departed on return to the Hoosier state, well patronized in passage traffic.

The City of Memphis left St. Louis yesterday with a big trip. She is due here tomorrow morning for Tennessee river.

Here is a record for you. The Louisville Courier-Journal of yesterday says: No line of steamboats in this country has a better record for safety than the Louisville, Evansville and Henderson Packet company. Its existence of forty years not a single passenger has lost his life by accident to any of the boats of this popular line.

The repair work on the transfer steamer De Koven has been completed so far as the marine ways are concerned but Engineer Ed Hart says on account of overhauling her machinery she will not leave here before next Sunday.

From the "gathering of subjects of the '15th amendment'" this morning down on the wharf it looked something like the 8th of August, but not quite so warm. The Fowler and Wabash both had their solicitors on the wharf with ticket for sale and the way they did "yank" those coons aboard was a caution.

ALL AGREED.

THE MOTORMEN AND STREET CAR COMPANY CAME TO TERMS.

Agreement Signed Last Night and the Motormen All to Be Put Back If Possible.

The conference last night at 7 o'clock between General Manager Wallace and Supt. Gus Thompson, of the Street Car company, and the committee from Central Labor union, resulted in a speedy and amicable settlement of the differences that had existed between the Street Car company and its motormen since the discharge of twenty-six of the latter last Sunday morning.

The following is the agreement signed by both sides:

"Agreement between Paducah Street Railway company and the Central Labor union of Paducah:

"First—We agree to reinstate as many as possible of the locked out motormen immediately, and to place the remainder upon the eligible list.

"Second—We agree to recognize the Motormen's union and to employ as regular men none but members of the same.

"Third—All men now in the employ of the street railway company to become members of the union.

"Fourth—All extra men to be considered as union men and to come under the jurisdiction of the same."

Also A Few Facts on the Same Subject.

We hear much nowadays about health foods and hygienic living, about vegetarianism and many other fad along the same line.

Restaurants may be found in the large cities where no meat, pastry or coffee is served and the food cranked in his glory, and arguments and theories galore advanced to prove that meat was never intended for human stomachs, and almost make us believe that our sturdy ancestors who lived four score years in robust health on roast beef, pork and mutton must have been grossly ignorant of the laws of health.

Our forefathers had other things to do than formulate theories about the food they ate. A warm welcome was extended to any kind from bacon to acorns.

A healthy appetite and common sense are excellent guides to follow in matters of diet, and a mixed diet of grains, fruits and meats is undoubtedly the best.

accepted before, but required the ratification of General Manager Wallace. The committee states that it learned upon investigation that the unpleasant affair was brought about by a misunderstanding, and that Supt. Thompson readily signed the agreement after doing much to amicably adjust the trouble. After the conference with the street car officials the committee reported back to the Central body and its action was ratified.

The motormen who have been off since Sunday will report for duty tomorrow morning and be put back as rapidly as possible.

CLERKS' MINSTRELS.

THE DATE FIXED FOR JUNE 24

—REHEARSALS SUNDAY.

The big clerks' union minstrels is a go. June 24th is the date set for the performance and from present indications it will be a great success. The rehearsals will begin Sunday and the boys promise something that will never again be equalled by local talent. The project was first suggested several months ago, soon after the organization of the union, and the union acted on it favorably. The date would probably have been set sooner, but it was decided to postpone it until after the carnival. The program will last about two and one-half hours and will be one round of continuous fun and laughter.

Superintendent Renshaw Completes the Machinists' Scale.

RETURNED TO CHICAGO

A Small Wreck in the Illinois Central Yards, Spilling Five Cars of Coal.

THE LATEST RAILROAD NEWS

Superintendent of Machinery William Renshaw arrived in the city yesterday afternoon from Chicago and completed the arrangement with the machinists.

He gave eight more machinists 30 cents per hour, which makes a total of 10 now receiving that amount per hour. There are about 75 employed in the shops when the full force is employed, but at present there are not quite that many. The remainder were given a rate of 29 cents per hour and the completion of the agreement and the arrangement of the scale by the superintendent was received with satisfaction by the local employees.

"There are several men," remarked a union machinist, "who will never be satisfied with the arrangements made by a company no matter how good they may be and therefore you can hear some kicking, but the men here are all satisfied and we will have no more trouble."

Mr. Renshaw and assistant returned to Chicago last night.

Mr. Bell Given, the time keeper in the master mechanic's office, is in Memphis taking in the reunion. His place is being filled by Mr. Harry Ashcraft.

There was a small wreck in the local Illinois Central yards this morning about 3 o'clock. Two extra freight trains had come in and one was given an order to back into track No. 5. The engine pulled into No. 4 by mistake in the switching or by a misunderstanding of the order, cut his engine loose and left for the shops. The other train was given an order to pull into No. 4 which he did. He collided with the train already on the track and spilled five coal cars. The cars had the track blocked for some time, but no lengthy delays were occasioned by the accident. The cars were damaged slightly.

One of the local clerks in the yardmaster's office recently met a young man claiming to be from Memphis and an employee of the Illinois Central in the yardmaster's office there. He explained that he was in hard luck and wanted to be "staked" for his supper. The local clerk told him that he would give him an order on a boarding house and that he could take supper on him. The order was written out and accepted. Nothing more was heard of the man until several days later when a bill was brought to the young man at the local office for three days' board. He says he will never "stake" any more strangers.

Mr. E. D. Buchanan, a fireman on a switch engine, broke his right knee cap yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock in the local yards. He had gotten off his engine to get a drink of water, and when swinging on the engine again, struck his knee on the tank and badly shattered the knee cap.
